Although we've used a different (Christian) homeschool curriculum for our kids for many years, we were very pleasantly surprised when we tried the BJU history curriculum. The kids went from complaining about how boring it was to study all the "dates & places" in the history books, to saying that (in this book) the history was interesting.

Abeka or BJU | Homeschool Spot

I did some abeka in 1st and 2nd, used a different phonics program. In 3rd grade we went all abeka and it was fine. My kids were mostly reading at this point (one easily, one with a little more difficulty). I really like abeka, I also like BJU. Next year my ds will be doing BJU history and Abeka language, math and Bible.
