Level 1/ Level 2 certificates in academic subjects have been accredited for use in UK state schools since first teaching in 2012. The curriculum content of Level 1 / Level 2 certificates does not have to contain all the content of the National Curriculum in England for subjects for which it is relevant. They have contributed to performance measures in England from 2014 and can contribute to the EBacc.

Cambridge Nationals

OCR Nationals are vocationally related qualifications which were officially launched by the OCR Board in September 2004. The qualifications are designed to meet the needs of those seeking vocational education in place of the traditional, theory-intensive, academic route. Although the target audience are teenagers (14-19), the qualifications are also suitable for adult learners, much like the GNVQ.
