What to Look for and Avoid When Signing a Home-Building ...

Why a Construction Contract Is Important. At the most basic level, you want to get the house that was promised, and the contractor wants to get paid for the house being built. The contract serves to reflect this understanding, to make sure there is no disagreement before the actual works begins, and to provide a guide to follow in case a problem arises later. Most often your contractor will provide you with a contract that's ready for signing.
