Put on Your Crown Quotes by Queen Latifah

"Put On Your Crown" is an excellent book. As soon as I began it; it was hard for me to put it down. I have to make this book family reading with the females in my family. After each female reads the book they have to sign and date. Then we all come together for discussion. Queen really spoke to the females. Great encouraging material. MUST READ

When God breathed his life into you, he put a crown on your head. The psalmist called it a crown of glory and honor. This crown represents your authority. It represents God's blessing and favor on your life. It's a reminder that you're not average, not mediocre, but you are royalty.

Joel Osteen — Keep Your Crown

To make a crown, your dentist takes a mould of your tooth and sends it away to a technician who will prepare the crown. It can often be matched to the colour of your teeth, so it will blend in. You might be given a temporary crown to get you through until the permanent crown is made.
